

Human crowd baselines use the correlation between the mean human prediction and the true outcome across the 20 validation questions.

Bars show the mean correlation over 50,000 bootstrap 5-of-30 ensembles; whiskers show the 5th-95th percentile.